GREELEYVILLE NEWS. The farmers in this section are trying with an unsettled mind to prepare for their farms. I am fearful that the cotton and tobacco crops in this section will be slighted to a large extent. The merchants do not need a twoton truck to carry their deposits to the banks nowadays.

The mission union of Williamsburg county have just, closed a delightful session with the Trinity Baptist Church, with A. D. Nelson president. The installation of Rev. J. D. Nathaniel of Sumter to the Good Hope Baptist Church will commence the week before the first Sunday in March, 1921. He is being made welcome by all of the neighboring pastors and churches of this section. We hope for him a successful voyage in this field of labor.

On the second Sunday in January we were on our missionary tour with Rev. Jas. P. Garrick and his people at Bethel Church, Sumter County. They gave us a royal welcome and asked that we must come again. They are doing good work and are making old Bethel shine as a new edifice.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Frances E. Davis, wife of Mr. William Davis and daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, who departed this life one year ago this 19th day of February, to dwell with the redeemed of the Lord in the land of perfect rest.

Thou hast gone, dear one, from out midst;

From mother, father, sisters, husband, children, friends, We love and miss thee still, and thoughts of Thee will ever linger in our minds. The Family.

LOVE TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR HUSBAND.

In memory of my dear husband, James Thompson, who departed this life six years ago, February 16, 1915:

Dearest Jimmie, I do miss thee, With thy sweet and smiling face; But I know that thou art happy, Filled with His abiding grace.

Thou, our love, who hast departed, From this sinful world of ours, Knowest not that I do love thee-But His love is greater than ours.

Go ddid call thee, dearest Jimmie, From a world of sin and woe; From across the great, deep waters, To where thou knowest sin no
